

COMMONWEALTH WAR GRAVE

This is just one of 24 commonwealth war graves in the church yard from WW1 and WW11

As we commemorate 80 years of the ending of WW11 we will be marking all the graves with a poppy. Does one of these belong to your family? PLEASE JOIN US

GUIDED TOURS 11.00am and 12.00pm
by a member of the churchyard who has researched our brave local hero's.

PLEASE WEAR STURDY SHOES AS THE GRAVEYARD IS UNEVEN

OPEN DAY

ST MICHAEL'S CHURCH
CHURCH ROAD FLIXTON M41 6WH

SATURDAY 13TH SEPTEMBER 2025 10.00-16.00

PLEASE TAKE PART!

Tell us your story and have it displayed on the day

Did a member of your family serve in one of the forces, or work on a land farm? Were you evacuated? Did you help the fire service? Where you in the home guard?

Tell us your story and proudly have it displayed on the day. This is your church community, your family, your story

BELL TOWER Ringing room open
HAVE YOU HEARD THEM RINGING?

The tower is not normally open to the general public so this is your opportunity to climb the stone spiral staircase and talk to an experienced ringer

ON THE DAY YOU CAN ALSO VIEW

An 800 year long time line highlighting events over the centuries during the life time of St. Michael's church presence in Flixton

Registers and records from Manchester Central
Baptism, marriage and burials records from the 1930's
An expert will help you find what you are looking for.

What happens to a Priest or Curate once they leave?

We have contacted many of them and they tell their story in this display

REFRESHMENTS SERVED ALL DAY
